On December 6, 1988 [REDACTED]
Taylor, Texas, stated that she has been a lifetime resident of Taylor and has co-authored an extensive history of the city. To her knowledge, there had never existed a boarding house by the name of Gosset's Boarding House in Taylor. She advised that the applicant had most likely rented a room from ISETTA GOSSET who had owned a large home at 513 7th Street, Taylor, Texas during the 1940's and 1950's. ISETTA GOSSET passed away in March of 1988. A search of phone books from 1948 to 1950 failed to identify Gosset's Boarding House or the applicant.

Inasmuch as the applicant was unable to provide an accurate address and the applicant's probable landlord is deceased, verification of the applicant's residence was not possible.

SA 161A-1466

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agent (SA) [redacted]

b6

On December 6, 1988, [redacted] [redacted] Groos National Bank, 40 Northeast Loop 410, San Antonio, Texas, advised that the Mercantile Bank and Trust (MBT) was sold by the owners to Groos National Bank (GNB) in mid-1987. Records from GNB archives were located, retrieved and provided to the FBI for review late December 6, 1988. Copies of pertinent documents were photocopied and turned over to the FBI. It was ascertained that the loan was authorized and handled by [redacted] then president of MBT. [redacted] is currently the president of Continental National Bank, 1300 W. Hildebrand, San Antonio, Texas.

A review of the appropriate records indicate TOWER, through his attorney, HAYDEN W. HEAD, SR. (deceased), from Corpus Christi, Texas, sought a loan of $108,000 from MBT in May, 1981. At the same time TOWER originated a checking account at MBT. The loan was secured by assignment of a lease agreement between TOWER and SOUTHERN MARINE, a Texas oil company. The loan was to be used for an oil well blowout preventer, an item of oil well technology, for a period of five years. SOUTHERN MARINE agreed to pay $3200 per month for five years. TOWER, through the loan agreement was obligated to make monthly payments of $2565 per month, netting TOWER $635 per month in excess of the loan payment. The loan rate was set at one percent over the Federal Discount rate with the rate rising or falling with the discount rate.

[redacted] (supra) reviewed the documents of this loan and advised she sees nothing unusual regarding the loan. The rate was in accordance with standard banking procedures in effect in May, 1981. The loan was paid in full within the appropriate time.

[redacted] (supra) was located and interviewed on December 7, 1988. [redacted] advised he is personally acquainted with TOWER and met with him several times, specific dates unknown, at MBT, San Antonio, Texas. [redacted] reviewed the photocopies of the MBT loan records and advised he is familiar with that loan inasmuch as he personally handled and authorized same while president of MBT.

[] advised MBT was one of several South Texas banks owned by [] and other [] family members, residing in [] HAYDEN HEAD, SR. (supra) and TOWER were close friends and shared several business deals together. The [] family owned a holding company which owned ninety-five plus percent of MBT.

TOWER requested a $108,000 loan through a letter authored by HEAD. [] noted the loan was a standard business loan issued at the normal, competitive rate of one percent above the Federal Discount Rate, standard procedure at that time. Current banking practice binds rates to prime rate in lieu of the discount rate. All payments were made in a timely manner and the loan was fully re-paid. [] specifically advised TOWER never asked for nor was granted any special rates, favors, time extensions, etc. The entire process was handled in a business-like manner by all concerned parties. [] denied an allegation of impropriety on his part or by then Senator TOWER.

[] advised HAYDEN HEAD (supra) was killed within the last few years in a plane crash. RICHARD WOOD, [] and involved in the [] family business, died within the last year.

[] association with TOWER concerned banking business. [] was unaware of and has no knowledge of any excessive alcohol consumption, womanizing, illegal or questionable campaign contributions, mental incapacities, illegal or improper activities in the banking community or any other problems TOWER has had.

Memorandum from Legal Counsel to Assistant Director,
Criminal Investigative Division
Re: Release of "ILLWIND" Title III Information

As the facts of this matter were described to DAD KELLEY, and subsequently to me, the Federal district court judge who issued the court order authorizing the interceptions was briefed on the proposed disclosure. However, the judge did not decline to issue an order authorizing the disclosure, nor did the judge opine that such an order was necessary. The judge simply referred United States Attorney HENRY HUDSON to the provisions of section 2517.

At 5:15 p.m. my Special Assistant, SSA [redacted] attempted to contact [redacted] on this matter (previous attempts by DAD KELLEY to contact [redacted] were unsuccessful). [redacted] secretary informed SSA [redacted] that he should speak with Deputy Associate Attorney General [redacted] on this matter. At approximately 5:20 p.m. [redacted] advised SSA [redacted] that you and [redacted] would be departing within forty-five minutes to disclose the information to appropriate members of President-elect BUSH's transition team.

b7C

At approximately 6:00 p.m., as you were enroute to meet with officials of the transition team, I informed you that because of the lack of sufficient time to conduct necessary legal research on this issue, including examination of any pertinent court decisions and DOJ written legal opinions, I could render only a preliminary legal opinion, based upon the plain language of the statute and a cursory review of the annotations to the statute contained in Title 18, U.S.C. [REDACTED] the Board of Astrotech International Corporation, highly recommends the appointee for a position of trust and confidence with the United States government without any reservations.

-RUC-

DETAILS:

BUSINESS ASSOCIATION

Astrotech International Corporation
2 Chatham Center
Suite 240
Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania (PA) 15219
Member of the Board of Directors

On December 6, 1988, [REDACTED] to WILLARD F. ROCKWELL, JR., Chairman, Astrotech International Corporation, 2 Chatham Center, Pittsburgh, PA, advised that Mr. ROCKWELL was up in the mountains hunting and not expected back to Pittsburgh for several days. She advised that she would try to get a message to him to call the Investigating Agent.

b6
b7c

[REDACTED] advised that General Space Corporation is no longer in existence and her records reflect that the appointee first became a member of the Board of Directors of Astrotech International Corporation in January of 1985. He resigned his position on the Board in April of 1985, to take up his ambassadorial duties in Geneva, Switzerland. On April 2, 1986, he was re-elected to the Board and has been a member, in good standing, continuously since.

On December 7, 1988, [REDACTED] advised that she was not able to get in touch with Mr. ROCKWELL.

On December 8, 1988, WILLARD F. ROCKWELL, JR., RD#1, Box 168-A2, Garrett, PA, (Somerset County), advised that he has known the appointee since approximately 1968, through their mutual association with a national fraternity. Since that time, they have been business associates, friends and have had some social contact.

ROCKWELL described the appointee as a very psychologically stable, sensible, solid and dependable individual. He considers the appointee to be an exceptionally capable, competent, effective, intelligent and hard working person.

ROCKWELL advised that he has never known the appointee to use illegal drugs, to abuse alcohol or have an alcohol problem or any other sort of problem which might tend to make him a security risk.

ROCKWELL advised that he has never known the appointee to live beyond his financial means or have any other sort of financial problems or improper financial involvements.

He had never known the appointee to exhibit any sort of bias or prejudice against any group, race, creed or religion. He knows of no habits, practices or indiscretions of the appointee which might possibly be of any embarrassment to the government. He considers the appointee to be a very steady, stable, and sensible individual.

ROCKWELL advised that he was aware of absolutely nothing derogatory concerning the appointee's background, character, associates, reputation, loyalty to the country, honesty or integrity and considered these all to be above question.

He advised that, as the appointee has proven in the past, he would consider him to be an excellent choice for a position of trust and confidence with the United States government and would very highly recommend him for such a position without any area of reservation or hesitation whatsoever.
